

Privacy Policy

Finance of America takes your online privacy seriously. This disclosure is one way of maintaining your trust in our company, our products and services. Our privacy statement describes how we collect, utilize and protect information about you during your visit on our web site.

What Personal Information Does Finance of America Collect Online?

We may collect personal information about you from the information you provide to us when you fill out an application or other forms on our site. We may also receive personal information about you from consumer reporting agencies, our affiliates or others. This information may include:

- Financial Information
- Name
- Address
- Social Security Number
- Date of Birth
- Account Numbers
- Telephone Number
- Email Address

Why Is Personal Information Collected?

If you fill out an application or other form on our site, we may ask for a variety of information to help us communicate with you, evaluate your eligibility and the product or services that may be right for you. We may also obtain other information about you, for example, your credit report. This information is used to determine your eligibility for our products and services.

Also, if you choose to share any personal information with us, we may store it and use it for our own marketing research and the marketing of our products and services to you.

When Is Personal Information About Me Collected Online?

We collect personal information about you when you fill out an application or other forms on our website.

Does Finance of America Use Cookies or Other Online Technologies to Collect Information About Me?

Some of our web sites may make use of "cookie" technology to measure site activity and to customize information to your personal tastes. A cookie is an element of data that a web site can send to your browser, which may then store the cookie on your hard drive. So, when you come back to visit us again, we can tailor information to suit your individual preferences. The goal is to save you time and provide you with a more meaningful visit.

When you visit our site, we may collect and store information about your visit. This information may include the time and length of your visit, the pages you view on our site, the last site you visited before coming to ours, and the name of your internet service provider. We use this data on an aggregate basis to measure site activity, and on an individual basis to make the site more useful and provide information that may be of interest to you.

Do You Share Personal Information About Me?

In certain circumstances, we may share information about you with other companies so that we may provide you with the products and services you have requested. We may share information about you with our suppliers and service providers for their use in providing services, or within the Finance of America family for market research and marketing purposes as allowed by law. Also, we may share information about you with credit reporting agencies when you complete an online form or application.

Any company with which we share information about you for the above purposes is contractually required to comply with confidentiality standards. We may disclose information about you as required or permitted by law. We do not sell information about you to anyone.

How Can I Review, Change or Correct Information You Collect?

We are committed to maintaining accurate and up-to-date information on all of our customers. We may provide you with access to account information in different ways, for example, over the telephone, online or on paper.

If you are a current customer, you may be able to update information such as: your address, telephone number and email address. You may contact us in order to do so.

If you have completed and saved, but have not submitted, an online form or application you may be able to make certain changes to the information you have provided to us before it is submitted. If you are unable to make changes to the information you have provided to us online, you may contact us in order to do so.

How Do You Protect Personal Information?

We restrict access to the information obtained from our websites and web pages to our employees, agents and contractors. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to protect personal information.

How Do I Contact Finance of America If I Have Questions About This Privacy Statement?

U.S. Mail:

Finance of America Mortgage 300 Welsh Road, Building 5 Horsham, PA 19044

Phone: (215) 591-0222

Toll-Free:(800) 355-LOAN (5626)

Fax: (215) 591-0221

email: privacy@financeofamerica.com

Will Finance of America Mortgage Make Changes To This Privacy Statement?

This statement is effective June 1, 2015 and remains in effect until amended. Finance of America Mortgage reserves the right to amend this Privacy Statement or alter its privacy principles at its sole discretion without notice to you. Any alterations to this Privacy Statement or our privacy principles will be posted on our web site in a timely manner.

Other Important Information

For California Consumers: In accordance with California law, we will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. For example, we may share information with your consent or as necessary to service or process a financial product or service that you request or authorize. We will also limit the sharing of information about you with our affiliates to the extent required by California law.

For Vermont Residents: In accordance with Vermont law, we will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. For example, we may share information with your consent or as necessary to service or process a financial product or service that you request or authorize. We will not share information about your creditworthiness with our affiliates except with your authorization or consent.